We help over 1,800 schools and trusts to:

Finally understand the complete picture of their staff

Our products join up all your staff data, so you can track every interaction. Turn scattered touchpoints into clear insights about absences, recruitment, retention and wellbeing, and know exactly where to focus your attention.

Scale HR without increasing headcount

With a strong HR infrastructure, it's easy to roll out consistent processes and policies and treat everyone the same way. And with our people services team at FusionHR, HR advice, consultancy and strategy is only a phone call away.

Dramatically reduce HR admin for everyone

With self-service tools for employees, and helpful reports, automations, alerts and templates for managers, HR quickly becomes less of a mountain.

We're education people, people

We created SAMpeople because we've been there.

Founded by former school staff and our education HR specialists at FusionHR, we're bringing together decades of HR expertise with the latest in people management technology.

SAMpeople Recruit (Formerly FACE-Ed)

More than just a jobs board

Our recruitment software automates manual tasks, creates a seamless candidate journey and streamlines hiring from start to finish. Available standalone, or seamlessly linked up with SAMpeople's HR system

Onboard new hires in one click

When you use our HR and recruitment software together, all your new candidate's details, vetting checks and documents are instantly transferred into our HR system. So everything is ready to go for a great first day

"You don't have to even input the data - the employee creates their own record and that automatically goes into SAMpeople"

From approval to offer

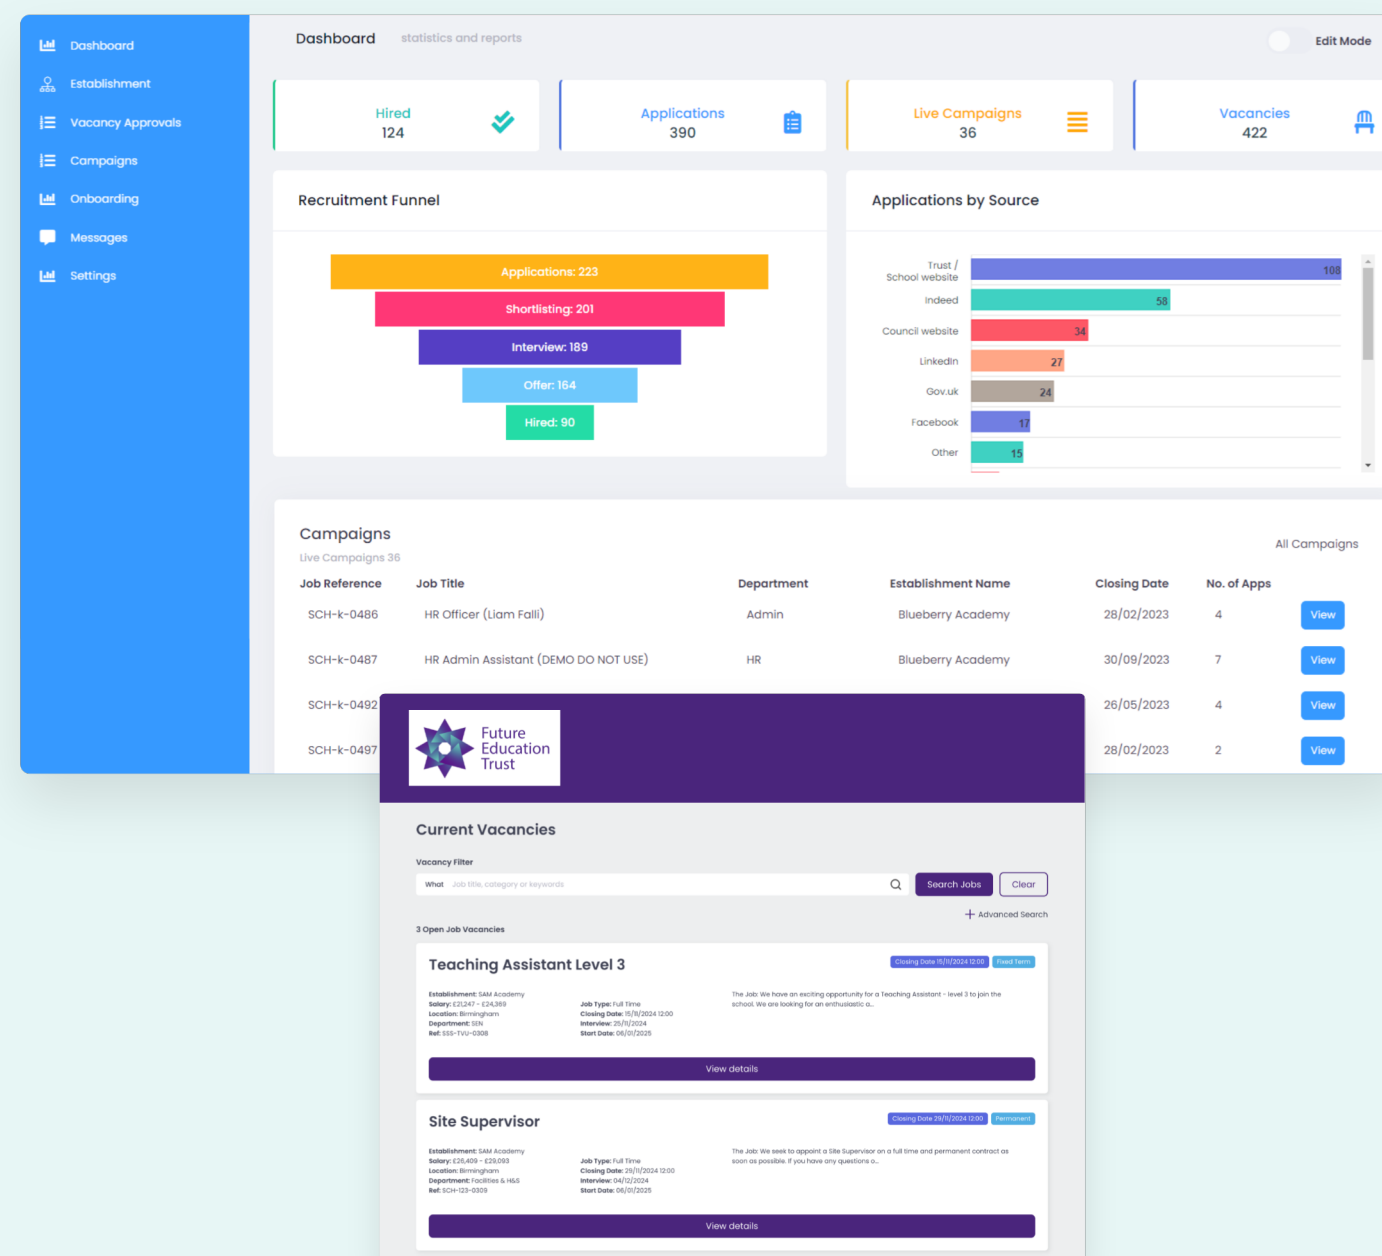

Manage the whole hiring journey in one place. Including organising approvals, posting to jobs boards, vetting candidates, chasing references and onboarding.

Save hours of admin with every hire

Features like automatic reference requests and chasing, built in interview and offer packs, and template libraries dramatically cut down on manual, repetitive hiring jobs.

Best practice built-in

Features like anonymised shortlisting and ready-to-print checklists help you create consistency, avoid unconscious bias and ensure fair process.

Designed by Safer Recruitment experts

Built in Safer Recruitment checks automatically flag any issues, from qualification gaps, to unexplained gaps in employment or missing references.

Advertise to multiple websites

Including the DfE's teaching vacancies, Indeed, Total Jobs, LinkedIn and many more. All applications come into SAMpeople Recruit, so you can manage them all from one place.

Build a strong relationship from the start
